Thank you for your interest in giving a pet in need a loving home! The Parkland County Animal Shelter's adoption program is currently being reviewed. In the meantime, rescue the Expression of Interest form will allow the Parkland County Animal Shelter team to forward your information onto one of the animal rescues who will take ownership of our unclaimed stray animals. This form is to communicate expression of interest to adopt and does not guarantee the Applicant the adoption approval.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

By submitting this form, the Applicant is authorizing the release of their personal information to external, third-party organization (ie. an animal rescue) for consideration of adoption of the above noted animal. Please note that Parkland County is not affiliated with and does not benefit in any way from the operations of the third-party organization.

Parkland County is not responsible for any decisions or pricing related to the care or adoption of any animal once it is in the possession of the third-party organization.

Parkland County makes no guarantee or warranty as to the health, pedigree, sex or type of dog or cat for consideration of adoption once the animal is transferred to the third part organization.

Parkland County shall not be liable for any claims arising from any cause whatsoever in respect to the adoption of the said animal once the animal is transferred to the third-party organization.

No representations made by any Parkland County employee with respect to the health, pedigree, sex, adoption availability, or type of dog or cat are binding on Parkland County.
